

Case Study- “India Versus China”
Chapter 2 Population

Diff. Geography

Directions: Read the Case Study Revisited “India Versus China” found on pgs. 76-77 and then write a minimum of a half page response, be sure to use 12 point font and single spaced with 1 inch margins.

Case Study Response Question-

If you were the leader of a populous country with very limited resources, and the citizens were concerned about the growth of the population, would you institute birth control policies more similar to those of India or China? Why? Be sure to compare and contrast some details of each country’s policies when debating this question.

Case Study- “India Versus China”
Chapter 2 Population

Diff. Geography

Directions: Read the Case Study Revisited “India Versus China” found on pgs. 76-77 and then write a minimum of a half page response, be sure to use 12 point font and single spaced with 1 inch margins.

Case Study Response Question-

If you were the leader of a populous country with very limited resources, and the citizens were concerned about the growth of the population, would you institute birth control policies more similar to those of India or China? Why? Be sure to compare and contrast some details of each country’s policies when debating this question.

Case Study- “India Versus China”
Chapter 2 Population

Diff. Geography

Directions: Read the Case Study Revisited “India Versus China” found on pgs. 76-77 and then write a minimum of a half page response, be sure to use 12 point font and single spaced with 1 inch margins.

Case Study Response Question-

If you were the leader of a populous country with very limited resources, and the citizens were concerned about the growth of the population, would you institute birth control policies more similar to those of India or China? Why? Be sure to compare and contrast some details of each country’s policies when debating this question.