

Activity 7

Use with Chapter 2, Lesson 3

Good Character Traits

People with good character show certain qualities, such as trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring, and citizenship. Read each description below and write the main character trait that the person being described is showing.

1. Anna is a serious animal rights activist who disagrees with Sean's ideas on the subject. When they discuss the issue, however, Anna accepts the fact that she and Sean have different opinions.

4. Dustin promised to babysit his little brother while his mother went shopping. Then he found out that his friends planned to go to a movie that afternoon. He told his friends that he couldn't make the movie.

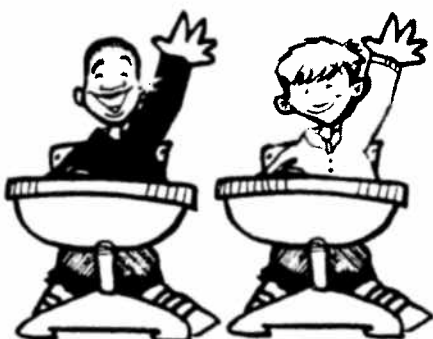

2. Jordan noticed that the new boy in school, Charles, was sitting alone in the cafeteria because he didn't know anyone. Jordan went over and asked Charles to sit at the table with him and his friends.

5. Paige is one of the judges in her school's art show. As she is reviewing the artwork that has been submitted for judging, she sees that her best friend created one of the paintings. She shows no favoritism in her decisions on who will win the art show.

3. Natalie has volunteered to help clean up Fulton Creek. She will spend Saturday with a group from the Ecology Club, clearing out the cans and bottles that have accumulated.

6. When Juan tells his friend Adam about his problems at home, Adam is careful not to talk about that information with anyone else.

Copyright © by The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. All rights reserved.

Name _____ Date _____

WHAT'S IN A NAME? (SM-61)

DIRECTIONS: Write your first and last name vertically in the space provided. Use the letters to write words that describe your positive qualities. An example is given below:

| | |
|----------|----------------------------------|
| P | atient |
| A | cepting |
| T | rustworthy |
| S | ociable |
| M | ellow |
| I | ntelligent |
| T | reats people with respect |
| H | umorous |

Try your name below:

I'm glad I have a short name...

