

BASIC INFORMATION

- 1) For every question that you correctly explain/answer on this re-take, you will earn ½ credit back. (EXAMPLE: If a question was worth 2 points on the exam, you will earn 1 point back on your initial exam score)
- 2) You may use any notes, prior assignments, worksheets as well as your textbook(s). You may NOT consult another student (nor use another student’s exam) during your re-take.
- 3) Write all of your re-take responses in detail on a separate sheet of paper and staple your re-take responses to your original exam.

RE-TAKE INSTRUCTIONS

→ For EACH INCORRECT ANSWER, write the following information:

A. Why did you miss this question?

- (Example #1: I was confusing the three branches of government, with the two parts of Congress.)
- (Example #2: I did not spend enough time studying for this exam.)

B. Identify the correct answer. (On a short answer test, write out the correct answer).

- (Multiple Choice Example: The correct answer is “A. culture and population”.)
- (Short Answer Example: The correct answer is “Amendments 1-10 are included in the Bill of Rights”.)

C. Cite where you found the correct answer listed.

- (Example #1: I found the correct answer on pg. 13 of the “We The People” textbook.)
- (Example #2: I found the correct answer on pg. 11, Ch 4 wkst, in my class notebook.)

*You will have answered A-C (listed above) for EACH incorrect answer on your original test.

BASIC INFORMATION

- 1) For every question that you correctly explain/answer on this re-take, you will earn ½ credit back. (EXAMPLE: If a question was worth 2 points on the exam, you will earn 1 point back on your initial exam score)
- 2) You may use any notes, prior assignments, worksheets as well as your textbook(s). You may NOT consult another student (nor use another student’s exam) during your re-take.
- 3) Write all of your re-take responses in detail on a separate sheet of paper and staple your re-take responses to your original exam.

RE-TAKE INSTRUCTIONS

→ For EACH INCORRECT ANSWER, write the following information:

A. Why did you miss this question?

- (Example #1: I was confusing the three branches of government, with the two parts of Congress.)
- (Example #2: I did not spend enough time studying for this exam.)

B. Identify the correct answer. (On a short answer test, write out the correct answer).

- (Multiple Choice Example: The correct answer is “A. culture and population”.)
- (Short Answer Example: The correct answer is “Amendments 1-10 are included in the Bill of Rights”.)

C. Cite where you found the correct answer listed.

- (Example #1: I found the correct answer on pg. 13 of the “We The People” textbook.)
- (Example #2: I found the correct answer on pg. 11, Ch 4 wkst, in my class notebook.)

*You will have answered A-C (listed above) for EACH incorrect answer on your original test.