Abraham Lincoln

5

Abraham Lincoln was born on February 12th, 1809, in a small log cabin	(15) in Kentucky. Life was hard for Abe growing up. His family was poor. His Mom	(30) died when he was very young. He loved school and learning new things, but was	(45) forced to leave school to help his family. He only went to school for about one	(61) year! He had to learn on his own by reading books. His favorite book was	(76)
called The Life of George Washington.	(82)
Abraham studied law. He taught himself how to run a store and measure	(95) land. He also became interested in politics, and wanted to become president	(107)
some day. He did just that in 1860, when he was elected the 16th president of	(123)
the United States. Abraham helped preserve the United States by leading the	(135) northern states to victory over the southern states in the American Civil War.	(148)
He is also famous for helping end slavery in America.	(158)
Abraham married Mary Todd, and had four children. He was known for	(170) being very tall and kind. He was also known for his stove pipe hat. He will	(186) always be remembered as one of our country's greatest presidents.	(196)
