

There are a few readings that we will likely not have time to discuss, but yet have some importance as they relate to the start of the Civil War. To ensure that ALL students read these sections, I am assigning you notes to complete in outline form. If you choose to take the notes in your notebook instead, you will simply show them to me and I will grade them that way.

DUE ON: _____

I. The Secession Crisis

A. Withdrawal of the South

-
-
-
-

B. Failure of Compromise (Include Crittenden Plan here somewhere!)

-
-
-

C. Fort Sumter

-
-

-

-

-

-

D. The Opposing Sides

-

-

-

II. Mobilization of the North

A. Economic Measures

-

-

-

-

-

B. Raising the Union Armies

-

-

-

C. Wartime Politics

-

-

-

-

-

D. The Politics of Emancipation

-

-

-

-

E. African Americans and the Union Cause

-

-

-

-

F. The War and Economic Development

-

-

G. Women, Nursing, and the War

-

-

-

-

III. The Mobilization of the South

A. The Confederate Government

-

-

-

B. Money and Manpower

-

-

-

-

C. States' Rights and Centralization

-

-

D. Economic and Social Effects of the War

-

-

-

-

IV. Strategy and Diplomacy

A. The Commanders

-

-

-

-

B. The Role of Sea Power

-

-

-

C. Europe and the Disunited States

-

-

-

D. The American West and the War

-

-