

Verbs

How many verbs are in the following sentences? Be sure to include linking and action, but do not mark infinitives, gerunds, or participles.

1. Susie wondered what wonderful things life with her own true love would hold.
2. Hunt was a devoted dad, a man who loved to spend time with his children.
3. The men in the room each drew a straw to determine who would take the watch until morning.
4. She didn't like it, approve of it, or allow it in her house.
5. No two people think in exactly the same way, though some find soul mates who whisper the ends to their sentences before they say them.
6. They did not know themselves exactly how the situation would end.
7. She is exactly the kind of girl I would want my boy to marry!
8. Karen wasn't sure to whom the award should go.
9. I know that this is unusual under these circumstances, but things are exactly as they should be!
10. The real estate agent asked her to sign a listing agreement on the house.

Verbs

List the verbs in the following sentences. Mark A for action and L for linking.

1. The mayor suggested that the boy clean Wilmington Statue for his community service project.

2. Two friends water-skied on Lake Erie.

3. The twins, who are from the large city of Houston, are vacationing in Canada.

4. The teacher asked the student for his report on the country of France.

5. The address on the envelope was Mexico.

6. The witness's story is about a man in a building.

7. The factory blew into a thousand pieces.

8. Mary was so excited that she ran all the way home.
