

Evidence

Why is evidence important?

Why do detectives have to be able to supply evidence in order to convict someone of a crime?

How do they get evidence?

EBQ's: Evidence-Based Questions

Kimmy stormed through the front door, neglecting to even attempt to close it. She slammed her backpack down on the table and yelled, “I can’t STAND Ms. Crabapple! She assigned a ten-page essay with only one day to finish it!”

EBQ: Part 1

How would you describe Kimmy's feelings, based on this short passage?

- A) Excited
- B) Angry
- C) Nervous
- D) Tired

EBQ: Part 2

What did Kimmy do that helped you determine how she felt?

- A) She didn't close the door
- B) She came home from school
- C) She yelled
- D) She slammed her backpack down

EBQ: Part 3

What most likely caused Kimmy to feel the way she does?

- A) She didn't close the door
- B) She does not like her backpack
- C) She really enjoys writing essays
- D) Ms. Crabapple assigned an essay with very little time to complete it