

Standards 6.1/6.2 Review

Name _____

Across

4. The _____ is a large, flat grassland where the Mongols lived in housing called gers or yurts.
6. Mongol women gave _____ advice and could rise to the rank of chief.
8. Environmental factors that affected the Mongol lifestyle included the importance of horses, their diet of _____ and dairy, and the use of yurts for housing.
9. People who move from place to place often to feed their animals on grasslands are called _____.
13. Many towns and cities _____ rather than fight and be destroyed by the Mongols.
15. The Mongols conquered many kingdoms, including parts of _____.

Down

1. "The Secret History of the Mongols" by an anonymous author was originally recorded in the _____ tradition.
2. The _____ historian Rashid al-Din wrote about the Mongols in the 13th century.
3. _____ were vital to the Mongol lifestyle.
5. According to some sources, the Mongols could live in very extreme conditions with little to eat and were trained to stay on their horses for _____ straight.
7. The word "middleman" best describes the term "_____".
10. _____ to their leaders, acting as if they were running away to draw out their enemy, and a cruel disposition were Mongol tactics in battle.

Across

16. A son of Genghis (Chinggis) Khan, _____, was just and charitable, and helped develop cities and districts.
17. Mongol tribes often fought each other over resources, including land and _____, slave captives, women, goods, and rivalries.
18. The most used weapon of the Mongols was the _____.

Down

11. _____ _____ created an empire that was larger than the Roman Empire.
12. Historians believe _____ _____ may have made up some parts of his book, "Travels".
13. The Mongol religion had no buildings, regular worship or required beliefs, and was called _____.
14. There is much evidence to suggest that the Mongols may have been _____, as well as cultural brokers.