

Corroboration

Corroboration (cross-checking) asks you to consider details and evidence across multiple sources to strengthen and support a historical claim.

In other words, to corroborate means to compare.

Corroboration Questions to Ask:

Am I finding the same information everywhere?

Am I finding different versions of the story? If yes, why might that be?

Where else could I look to find out about this?