

Directions: Read the sections titled "Living in a Diverse World" in the Families Today text (green), pages 96-101.

NAME:

Explain what is meant when the author says "Getting along in any community and in life depends on knowing the conventions of that particular society." (Author & Me)

What qualities make cultures unique? (Right There)

- | | |
|----|----|
| 1) | 2) |
| 3) | 4) |
| 5) | |

How are cultures similar? (Think & Search)

- | | |
|----|----|
| 1) | 2) |
| 3) | 4) |
| 5) | 6) |

In what ways are cultures different from each other? (Think & Search)

- | | |
|----|----|
| 1) | 2) |
|----|----|

Describe a quality or trait of your culture that makes it unique from other cultures.
(On My Own)

How are cultures taught in society? (Right There)

Tell of a time that you have experienced "culture shock." (Author & Me)

Why is it important to preserve culture and not lose it? (Right There)

Explain how ethnocentrism can be destructive. (Think & Search)

7. Give an example of ethnocentrism that either you have experienced, heard about or know of someone experiencing. (Author & Me)

8. Now that you know a little more about culture, do you think you will take it into consideration more when you: (Author & Me)

1) Name your children?

Why or why not?

2) Raise your children?

How will it or will it not effect your parenting?